

The New Way to Install Irrigation Pumps

A Better, COMPLETE Solution

Irrigation contractors can take days gathering components to install a centrifugal irrigation pump. There's room for errors, leaks, and even safety violations.

Munro made it easy. We've taken all of the pieces and parts and put them together in one complete package.

This complete pump package also carries a 2-year warranty – extending the warranty from the industry's standard 1-year.

How Easy is It?

Cut installation time dramatically!
Go from half a day to an hour or less.
